FRANCE INTER & LE PARISIEN UNIVERSAL MUSIC & PHILARMONIC PARIS CALL FOR CONTEST

DRAW RENAUD S BANDANA

Paris, Washington DC, 10.11.2020, 00:21 Time

USPA NEWS - Last spring, during the first confinement (French Lockdown took place from 17 March to 11 May 2020), France Inter launched, with the Center Pompidou and the Théâtre du Châtelet, its partners, a drawing competition "Draw spring like Hockney" which brought together no less than 4000 participants, from 2 to 93 years old. For this second edition, France Inter and its partners are turning to the Philharmonie de Paris, whose exhibition around Renaud has just been suspended due to the health crisis. An opportunity to celebrate the French artist but also the world of music and the arts, including museums which are also private. The #RenaudBandana contest offers to revisit Renaud's bandana. No age limit, no prerequisites, everyone is invited to slip into the singer's leather and cowboy boots to offer an interpretation of the red bandana and share it on Instagram under the hashtag #RenaudBandana and / or send it to the email address renaudbandana@radiofrance.com.

This call for contributions, launched by Rebecca Manzoni in her program "Pop N'Co" on November 7, open to all, will end on January 7, 2021. The jury, formed by the partner institutions, will choose 15 winning works. These will be the subject of an exhibition and will be presented on the websites of each of the partners. In this uncertain period for citizens and the world of culture, France Inter, the Philharmonie de Paris-Musée de la musique, Le Parisien and Universal Music wish more than ever to affirm their support for creation and allow everyone to access culture and develop their own artistic expression.
